

200125

Moral character will survive the grave

It is the spiritual and moral character that is of value in the sight of Heaven, and that will survive the grave, and be made glorious with immortality for the endless ages of eternity. - Selected Messages p. 259

It is only the blessed and holy who will be ready for the first resurrection; for when Christ comes, He will not change the character. - Signs of the Times, February 9, 1891